

Affiliates & Learning Networks

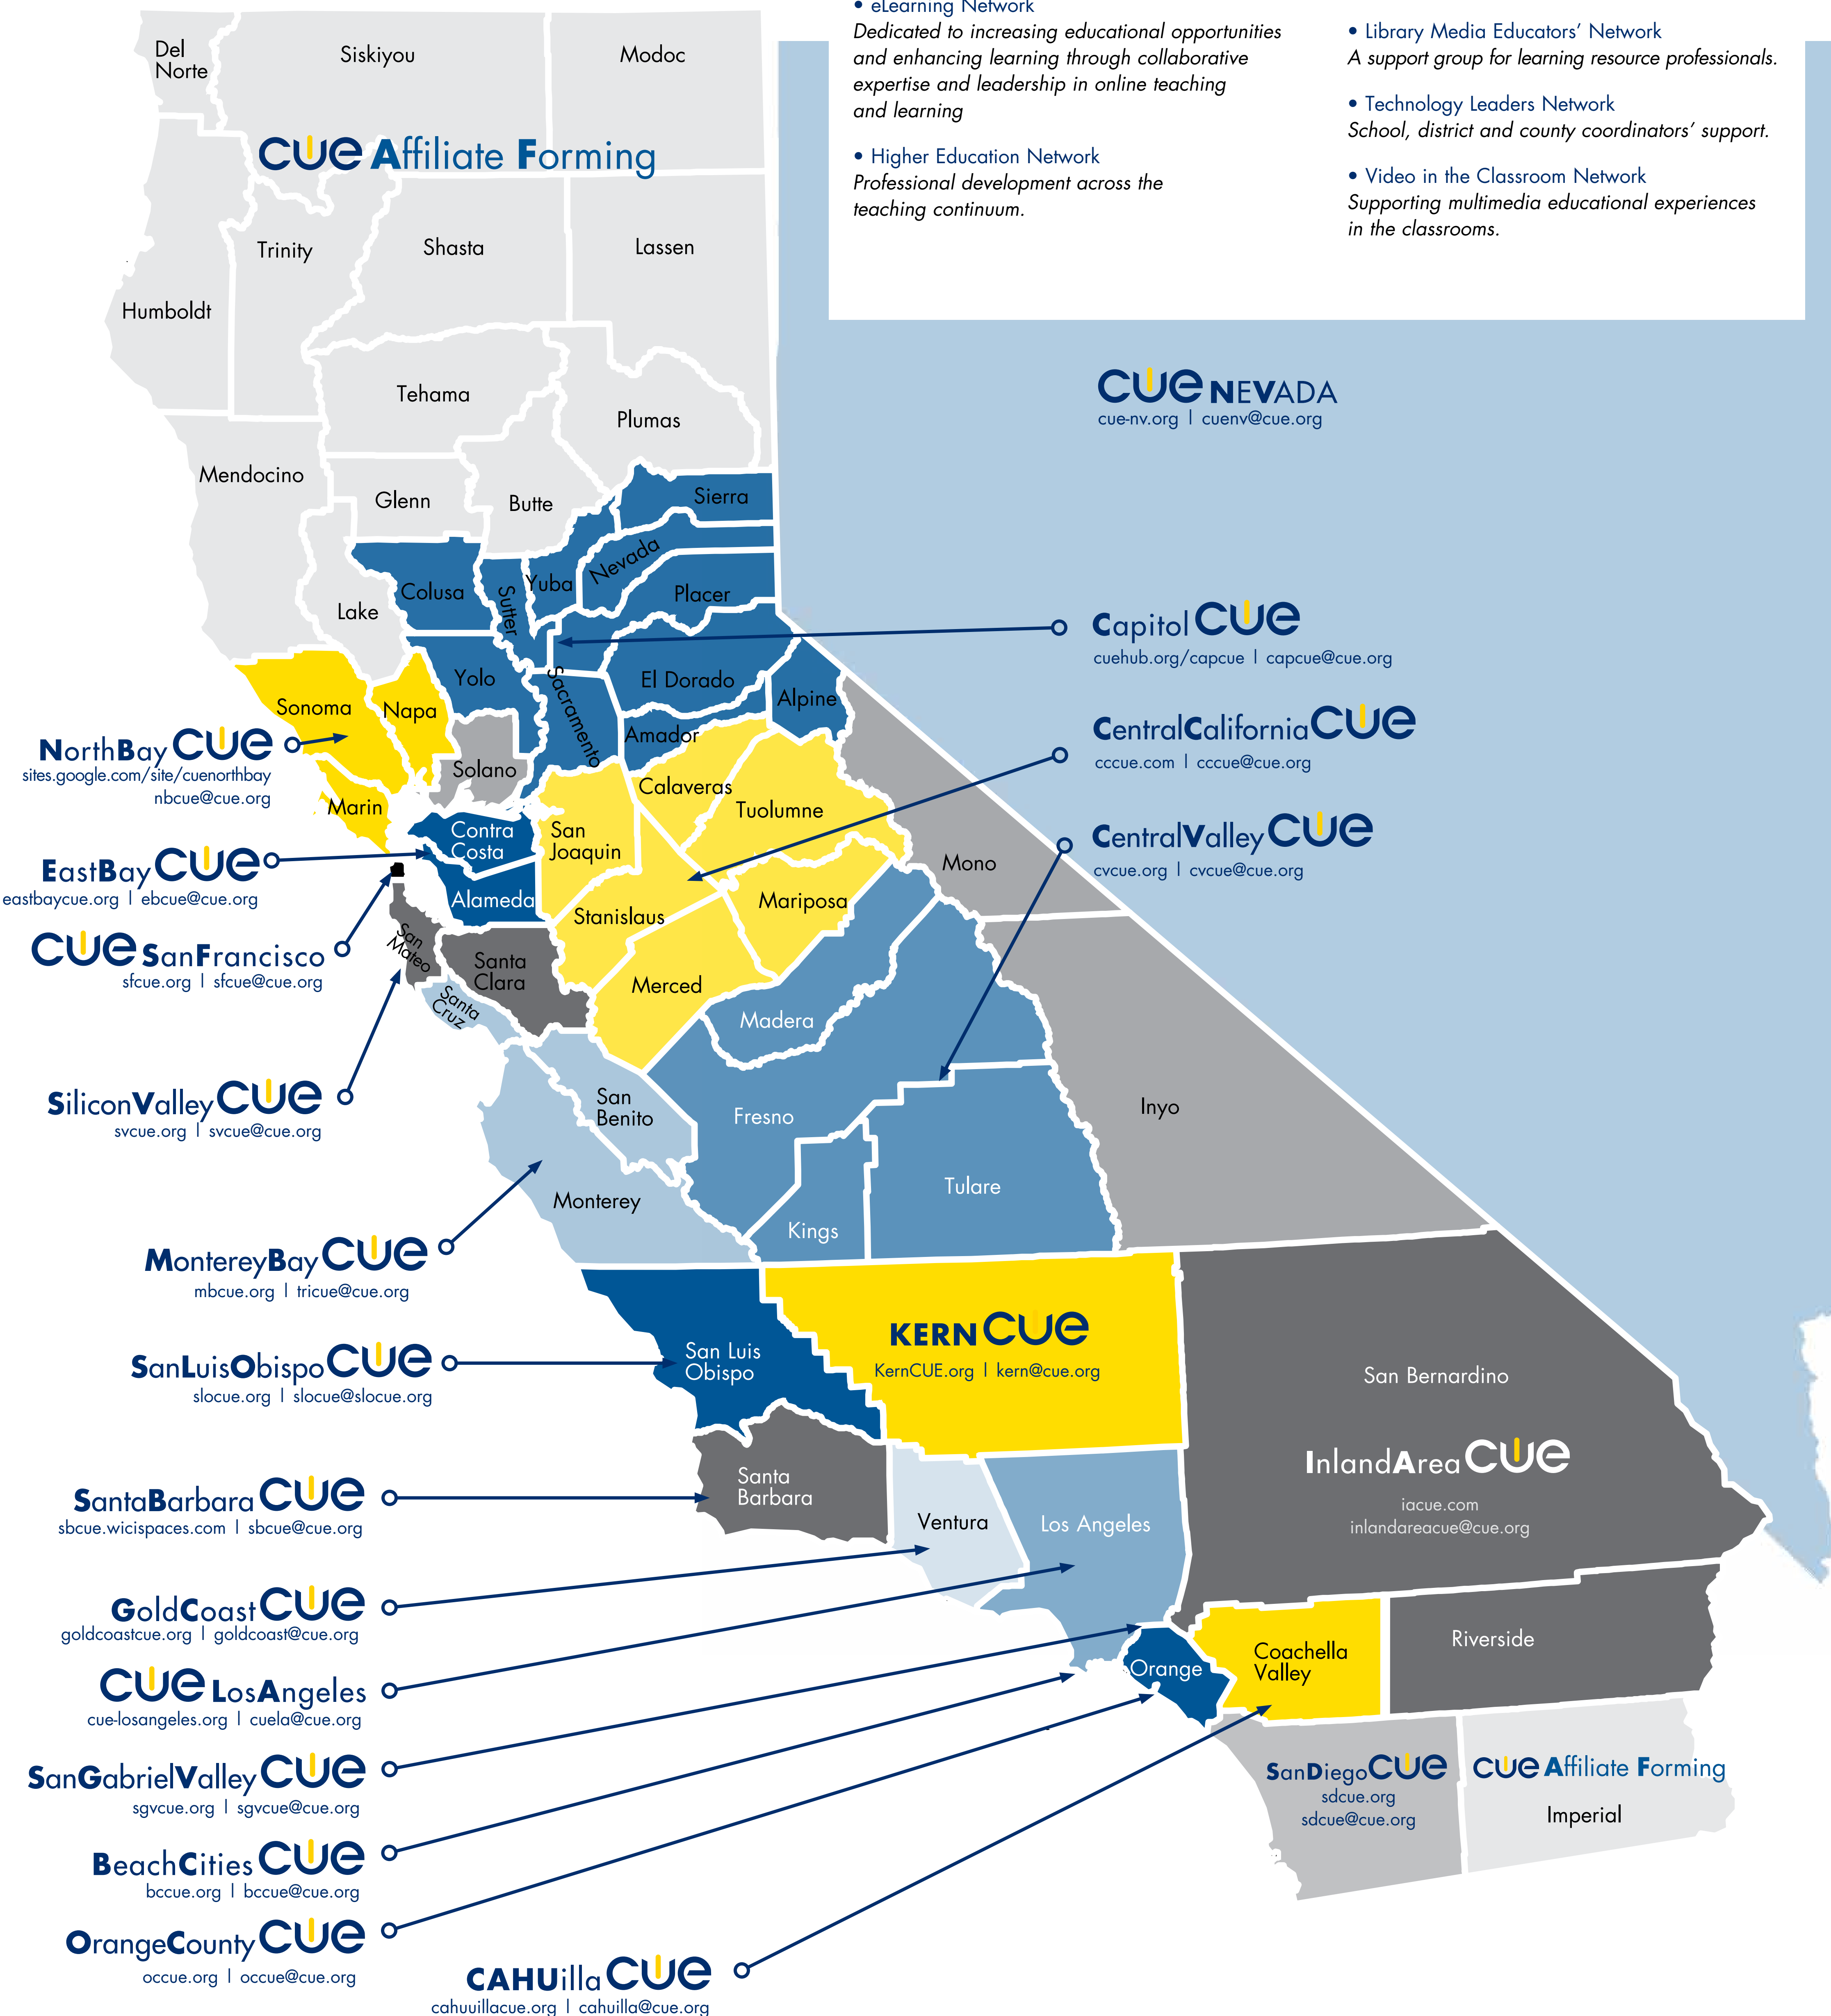

CUE'S COMMUNITIES OF LEARNING

YOUR LOCAL AFFILIATE CUE Members automatically become part of a local affiliate based on the address they provide. CUE has several regional affiliates providing a network of members in your area. In addition to regular meetings, many affiliates publish their own newsletters, coordinate smaller events, 'Coffee CUE' meetups and workshops, maintain websites, and offer special grants and other programs. You may join additional affiliates for an additional $10 per year. cue.org/affiliates.

CUE LEARNING NETWORKS CUE supports several Networks creating a virtual community based upon an area of interest. CUE members may join any or all Networks at no additional charge. CUE maintains a twitter list for every network @cueinc, encouraging a thoughtful exchange of ideas, techniques and strategies within each group. cue.org/networks.

- Administrators' Network
Support for technology-using school administrators.
- eLearning Network
Dedicated to increasing educational opportunities and enhancing learning through collaborative expertise and leadership in online teaching and learning
- Higher Education Network
Professional development across the teaching continuum.

- Independent Schools Network
Private, parochial, K-12, and higher education organizations.
- Library Media Educators' Network
A support group for learning resource professionals.
- Technology Leaders Network
School, district and county coordinators' support.
- Video in the Classroom Network
Supporting multimedia educational experiences in the classrooms.

CUE NEVADA
cue-nv.org | cuenv@cue.org

capitol CUE
cuehub.org/capcue | capcue@cue.org

Central California CUE
cccue.com | cccue@cue.org

Central Valley CUE
cvcue.org | cvcue@cue.org

KERN CUE
KernCUE.org | kern@cue.org

Inland Area CUE
iacue.com
inlandareacue@cue.org

San Diego CUE
sdcue.org
sdcue@cue.org

CUE Affiliate Forming